LIVE BLOOD VIEWING
ON
with
Maurice Loeb CNHP,CPT
Emotional & Biological Microscopist

- How Balanced are you really?
- How healthy are your lungs, your heart, your liver, etc?
- Abnormalities appear in your blood sometimes years before they manifest themselves as illness
- You will learn what is pertinent to the health of your body by looking at your blood. This is a very self-empowering process.
- You will receive a summary of your Blood viewing consultation, including personal recommendations
- Our emotions dictate our biology and our biology influence our emotions; Maurice specializes in making that connection through your blood

Private half hour appointments $ 85.00
